ABOUT US

Visual Voyages Real Estate Media is a Realtor®-owned company based in Fort Lauderdale, Florida and proudly serving areas from Melbourne to Miami. Our mission is to deliver beautifully crafted Real Estate images while providing unparalleled customer service. Powered by advanced AI editing tools and offering quick turnaround times, we ensure your photography needs are met with professionalism and precision. From listing photos and branding shots to showcasing the local area, we've got you covered!

We could start by saying we provide stunning listing photos (we do), that we're always punctual (true), or that our customer service is second to none (absolutely). And yes, we also offer fast turnaround times. While all of that sets a solid foundation, it's not the only thing that truly sets us apart in a crowded market. What makes us unique is that we are a Realtor®-owned company with full MLS access and an extensive database of buyers.

Once your listing goes live, we take it a step further by e-blasting it to our buyer leads, sharing it with the agents in our brokerage, and promoting it on our social media—provided the “any broker advertise” option is checked. This added exposure is something you won't find with your average photography company.

We go beyond traditional photography to showcase properties at their absolute best. From luxury real estate photography to cinematic video tours, we provide high-quality visuals that captivate buyers and elevate your listings. Our services include virtual staging to transform empty spaces, sky replacement for flawless outdoor shots, and twilight cover conversion to create a warm, inviting ambiance. With AI-powered editing, we enhance images by removing unwanted objects, while our community amenities photography ensures every feature of a property shines.

We also offer aerial photos and videos, delivering breathtaking perspectives that set listings apart. Whether you're marketing a cozy condo or a multi-million dollar estate, we provide the exceptional imagery needed to make a lasting impression.

We handle all editing in-house (we never outsource), which ensures consistent quality and attention to detail. You can count on us to show up as scheduled, deliver exactly what we promise, and provide quick turnaround times.

Let's Work Together!
